IDC Government Insights: Asia/Pacific Government Digital Strategies

IDC Government Insights: Asia/Pacific Government Digital Strategies is a program that assists decision makers in making informed choices, particularly with regard to digital policies, programs, and services that are provided to citizens. These insights include data and analysis related to policies, public opinion, and economic trends. By leveraging government insights, decision makers can make choices that are data driven and aligned with the needs and preferences of the public. This can lead to improved outcomes for citizens, increased operational efficiency, and enhanced trust in government.

Approach

The IDC Government Insights: Asia/Pacific Government Digital Strategies program provides in-depth analysis, extensive insights, and research and consultancy services through data-driven methodologies. Our research strategy is backed by extensive market data collection and secondary research. IDC Government Insights analysts undertake in-depth analyses of this data to make actionable recommendations. IDC Government Insights clients and subscribers provide regular feedback to ensure that our research is relevant and timely.

Topics Addressed

Throughout the year, this service will address the following topics:

- Navigating the Generative AI Regulatory and Governance Landscape in Asia/Pacific
- Data Sovereignty: Ensuring that Data Stays Safe and Secure Within the Borders of Countries
- Role of Cloud Transformations in Enhancing the Efficiency and Trust Levels of Government Services
- IDC FutureScape: Worldwide Smart Cities and Communities 2024 Predictions — AP Implications and Accompanying Report

Key Questions Answered

Our research addresses the following issues that are critical to your success:

1. What are some of the important considerations, such as regulatory frameworks, data governance, and assuring transparency, when using generative AI, and how are country governments tackling it?
2. What are the key benefits of cloud transformations in government services, and how do these transformations impact efficiency and trust levels?
3. What are the biggest security challenges faced by government agencies when implementing cloud-based solutions or other new technologies, and what steps can be taken to mitigate these challenges?
4. How can government agencies balance the need for emerging technologies with the need for data security and sovereignty, and what are the best practices for achieving this balance?
5. What are the predictions for the worldwide Smart Cities and communities in 2024 and beyond, and how will these predictions impact Asia/Pacific markets?

Who Should Subscribe

The IDC Government Insights: Asia/Pacific Government Digital Strategies program is designed for senior IT and technology leaders in the government sector. Understanding the latest technological trends, innovations, and advancements is essential for making informed decisions hence leaders and executives in the technology community will find value in the research coverage of program. This service is a crucial resource for country governments wishing to embrace digital transformation by gaining insights and performing research on the latest trends.